EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a personal interview with Panagiota Betty Tufariello (Reg. No. 40, 851) on November 1, 2000.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

A. Cancel claims 1-9, 11, 13, 15, and 16.

B. Claim 10, line 7, after the term "and" change "the" to --a--.

C. Add claim 17 as follows:

3. ~~4-17~~ A method of using boric acid in an amount sufficient to absorb a predetermined amount of heat comprising the step of directly or indirectly contacting the boric acid to a heat sensitive device.--

Reasons For Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While the closest prior art of record teaches a method of forming a heat stable composition that comprises a minor amount of boric acid, the prior art does not recognize the significance of a method for preventing the increase of temperatures in heat sensitive devices using boric acid. In particular, the prior art of record fails to teach a method for preventing the increase of temperatures in heat sensitive devices through the absorption of heat during heat generating conditions comprises the steps of providing an amount of boric acid sufficient to effect the required heat. Further, the prior art fails to teach supporting the boric acid in a position between the heat sensitive device and a heat generator, or directly/indirectly contacting the boric acid to the heat sensitive device in order to absorb the heat sensitive device's self generating heat.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
